

12 2-654
6 March 1956

MEMORANDUM FOR: Assistant Director/Personnel

SUBJECT: Training of Employees in Personnel Pool

Thanks for your memorandum on training in the pool. Certainly training must be oriented with a view to the place the applicant is intended to fill, but suppose the training indicates that the applicant is being underrated and is capable of a more advanced job than that for which he or she has been recruited. In the interest of the Agency, should not such a person be slotted to an advanced job? The meat of the question is whether there is a policy against doing this.

Stuart Hedden
Inspector General

cc: A/IN/A(G)

Orig&1-add

2-signer

MORI/CDF